ABOUT...

EVENT DETAILS

9:00am - Registration

11:00am - Shotgun Start

4:30pm - Awards Reception

The San Diego County Fire Chiefs Association is comprised of all county fire departments who work closely together to provide seamless fire and life safety services for our entire region.

The SDCFCA hosts this annual event to raise funds for the Burn Institute's invaluable support programs and services for hundreds of burn survivors, fire/burn prevention education to thousands of youth and families, free smoke alarm installation for seniors, youth fire setter intervention, and much more

Join us for this great event!

Burn Survivor Support

Counseling, community-building, activities, celebrations and more that enable survivors to learn, share, recover, and prosper. Ongoing peer and professional support is invaluable.

Prevention Resources

Reaching 50K+ youth annually with:
in-school interactive trainings- life-saving information. Youth fire setter intervention. Free smoke alarm installation for seniors.

Camp Beyond the Scars

Week-long summer camp for young burn survivors. Campers get to do what kids deserve – to have fun! Water sports, zip line, laser tag, skate boarding, talent show, hiking, therapy pets, crafts, dancing, movies, and more. Hope ~ Healing ~ Thriving
